NEWS RELEASE

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS ADDS FORUM FOR CALUMET CIRCUIT COURT BRANCH 2 CANDIDATES

APPLETON, WI — Last March Calumet County received a much-needed additional circuit court judge position. There are two candidates running for this position on the April 6th ballot: Carey John Reed and Kimberly A. Tenerelli.

The League of Women Voters of Appleton will hold a virtual forum for voters to hear the views of these candidates on Thursday, March 18 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. To view the forum live, register on the League website: lwvappleton.org or watch the livestream at <https://www.facebook.com/LWVAppleton/>.

Written questions for the candidates are encouraged, and may be submitted to: league.appleton@yahoo.com with "Candidate Forum Question-Circuit Court Judge" in the subject line. Questions must be received 24 hours before the forum. The League reserves the right to screen questions to avoid duplication and inappropriate rhetoric. Questions are to address issues appropriate to this particular public office, not personalities. The League of Women Voters is nonpartisan and does not support or oppose any candidate or party.

Information on the candidates also is available on the VOTE411 nonpartisan website.

Recordings of the forums will be available on the LWV website at www.lwvappleton.org. Follow LWV Appleton on Facebook and on the League website. LWV Appleton provides additional resources on its website, lwvappleton.org, and on its Facebook page and Twitter.

The League of Women Voters, a nonpartisan political organization, encourages informed and active participation in government, works to increase understanding of major public policy issues, and influences public policy through education and advocacy. Membership is open to men and women of all ages. With more than 750 affiliates across the county, the League is one of the nation's most trusted organizations.
