OUTREACH

Along with the scheduled Fox Valley 19th Amendment Centennial Celebration events (</events>), the Coalition has developed additional outreach opportunities for community groups and organizations, area schools and local businesses.

SPEAKER'S BUREAU

Community groups and organizations are welcome to take advantage of a Speaker's Bureau.

Volunteers from the key partner organizations are available to speak to your group about some of the more important, and sometimes unknown, history of the women's suffrage movement. They will also provide voting information, if appropriate.

The Speaker's Bureau is available to local groups of any size or age. The length of the presentation is flexible and can be adjusted to meet your group's needs.

If your organization is interested in securing a speaker for an upcoming meeting, please fill out the form below. Contact Gayle Hardt via email at gayle.hardt@gmail.com (<mailto:gayle.hardt@gmail.com>) with any questions.

TRAVELING EXHIBIT

(<http://www.myhistorymuseum.org/we-stand-on-their-shoulders.html>)A Traveling Exhibit, developed by the Wisconsin Historical Society (<https://www.wisconsinhistory.org/Records/Article/CS16052>), is available for limited display at locations throughout the Fox Valley. The eight-panel display, "We Stand on Their Shoulders": A History of Wisconsin Women and Voting (<http://www.myhistorymuseum.org/we-stand-on-their-shoulders.html>), explores moments when women in Wisconsin gained political rights and highlights a few key leaders.

Covering the ratification of the 19th Amendment, 1921 Wisconsin Equal Rights Act, 1924 Indian Citizenship Act and 1965 Voting Rights Act, the display shares the important story of women's quest for political rights and recognition through quotes, photographs and a timeline of events.

Schools, public libraries, historical societies and civic organizations in the Fox Cities may schedule the "We Stand on Their Shoulders" traveling exhibit at no cost for a two-week period. The display consists of four 39" x 87" freestanding, double-sided poly fabric banners on retractable banner stands. View the complete contents of each panel here (https://www.wisconsinhistory.org/pdfs/localhist/WeStand_banners_%2010-31-19.pdf).

This copy of the exhibit is made available by the Fox Valley 19th Amendment Centennial Coalition and managed by the History Museum at the Castle (<http://www.myhistorymuseum.org/we-stand-on-their-shoulders.html>). Please contact Chief Curator Dustin Mack at dustin@myhistorymuseum.org (<mailto:dustin@myhistorymuseum.org>) to reserve the exhibit.

EDUCATIONAL TOOLKIT

(<https://heroicehervoteourvictory.com>)

Educational Toolkits are available to schools at both the elementary and secondary levels. The age-appropriate toolkits provide information about the Women's Suffrage Movement and emphasize the importance of the right to vote.

Teachers can use the resources to develop their own curriculum on this topic or utilize ready-to-go activities. Toolkit content can be downloaded on the Resources (</outreach/resources/>) page. Contact us (<https://heroicehervoteourvictory.com/get-involved/>) for more information.

OTHER OPPORTUNITIES

“Voting for a Change – The Impact of the 19th Amendment on Our Community” is an interactive exhibit now open at the Neenah Historical Society (<http://www.neenahhistoricalsociety.com/>) through November 2020, located at 343 Smith Street in Neenah.

The exhibit highlights the 100th anniversary of women's right to vote in the United States and how local women championed this cause. It also features “modern” gadgets that women used in the early 1900s, the clothing they wore and how it was changing, and the struggles women underwent to help Wisconsin and the country achieve voting rights for women. Visitors will be able to cast their ballot in the 1920 election in an early voting booth, discover political cartoons of the time, and learn about leaders who influenced participation by women in all spheres of our community.

The exhibit is open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. or by appointment by calling 920-729-0244 (tel:9207290244). Visit neenahhistoricalsociety.com (<http://neenahhistoricalsociety.com/>) for more details.
